McLeskey, Rosenberg, & Westling (MR&W) list the following six key components of IDEA 2004

- Free & appropriate public education
- Nondiscriminatory assessment
- Least restrictive environment
- Individualized education program
- Parent participation
- Procedural safeguards

Using your own words (not the precise words of the text), define five of the six components. Then, describe at least two ways each of the five impacts your work as a classroom teacher. Which do you think is most challenging? Why?
